Applications

Applications Central Library (ACL). Configuration Management Branch personnel continued work last week on the input to and update of the ACL Document Index. Over 300 documents have now been added to this automated index. Of these, approximately 100 are current development (baselined) documents and approximately 200 are current production (operational) documents.   STAT

Graphics. Decision Resources has delivered the last release of Extendable Charting Option (ECO). This release contains all of the enhancements which were contracted including input of text charts by menu, the ability to call user written Fortran subroutines, and the capability to create text charts from user built VM data files. Extensive testing will be ongoing for the next few weeks to be sure that all of ECO's options are working correctly.   STAT

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Administration

FROM: STAT
   Director of Data Processing

SUBJECT: ODP Report for Week Ending 8 April 1983

1. SAFE Early Capability

        Users of SAFE Early Capability (SEC) Mail and Text have been experiencing limited availability of the systems because of COMTEN problems in the [   ] and Northside Centers and some   STAT software problems.

2. Support to the Office of Scientific and Weapons Research
(OSWR) and the Air Force

        TADS (Technical Analysis and Display System). A memorandum committing the Office of Data Processing (ODP) support for a TADS installation at Eglin AFB has been signed by the D/ODP. Eglin AFB has requested a final estimate of hardware costs so that they can prepare a Military Interdepartmental Purchase Request (MIPR) to have the funds transferred to the Agency. Estimates will be relayed to them pending final review of the hardware lists by ODP/Engineering.

3. Support to the Office of Security (OS)

        FOURCEE (Community-wide Computer Assisted Compartmentation Control System). The 4C system was operationally installed for use by selected Intelligence Community members on 4 April.
The Initial Operating Capability (IOC) currently supports CIA, Army, Air Force, DIA, PME106, Navy, and FBI. Community members not installed at IOC will acquire access to 4C upon completion of their sites and with the installation/tie-down of supporting communication equipment.

4. Significant Events During Coming Week

        The SAFE Monthly Technical Review meeting for April has been cancelled. The SAFE Quarterly Management Review time has been changed and will now be held at 1330 hours on 15 April in the ODP Conference Room (2D03 Hqs).
